

How to Complain

We aim to provide you with the highest standards of service. However, there may be occasions when our service does not meet your expectations but telling us about it gives us a chance to fix things.

We want to:

- Make it easy for you to raise your complaint
- Listen to your complaint
- Consider how you would like us to remedy your complaint
- Make sure you are satisfied with how your complaint was handled
- Ensure lessons are learned, if possible, to minimise the chance of a complaint re-occurring

What We Need

Please provide us with as much information as possible when making your complaint. This will help us to understand the issue and resolve it quickly. Please include:

- Your name and address
- Your account details
- A description of your complaint and how it's affected you
- When the issue happened
- Your contact details and how you would like us to contact you

What to Expect Next

Acknowledgment	Our aim is to resolve your complaint as quickly as possible but you will receive a response from us within 3 business days so you know we have received your complaint. This will contain your complaint reference number for your records and will help us find your information quickly should you need to contact us.
15 business days	In the majority of cases, we will be able to resolve your complaint within 15 business days. If we have not resolved it within 15 business days, we will contact you to update you on the progress and tell you how much longer we anticipate it will take.
Up to 35 business days	We will continue to keep you informed in writing and let you know when you should expect to hear from us. Although we have up to 35 business days, we will send you our final response as soon as we complete the investigation into your complaint. In the unlikely event we have not been able to finalise our investigation by the end of 35 business days, we will send you a final response communication and advise what next steps you can take.

What if you're not happy with our response?

You can refer the problem to the issuer of your card

If you don't agree with our response and you wish to take it further, in the first instance you should contact the TPML's (the card issuer) Complaints Department by writing to complaints@transactpaymentslimited.com for further assistance.

In the unlikely event that TPML are unable to resolve your issue to your satisfaction you have the right to refer your complaint to the Arbiter for Financial Services at the following address: Office of the Arbiter for Financial Services, 1st Floor, St Calcedonius Square, Floriana FRN 1530, Malta (Telephone+ 356 21249245, Website: <https://financialarbiter.org.mt>)

If you have not contacted TPML, the Arbiter for Financial Services will ask you to contact them in the first instance, to give TPML a chance to put things right.
